

I am writing to voice my support for OPEN and COMPETITIVE access to the Internet. Allowing a handful of companies to dictate how citizens connect to this invaluable resource is a terrible idea and eliminates consumer choice and free competition. I do not wish to be restricted in the internet services I can access because Qwest (or any other entity) chooses not to support them.

Please maintain open access.